LEARNING TO LIVE LIFE TO THE FULL

22 January 2026

Dear parents and carers,

I am writing to formally introduce myself as the new Principal of Brockington College. It is a privilege to serve our community in this role, and I am deeply committed to building on the strong foundations already in place.

My vision for Brockington is clear: to ensure that every student receives the very best start in life and has every opportunity to thrive academically, personally and spiritually. This means providing consistently high-quality teaching, strong pastoral care and a rich range of opportunities that allow every child to grow, succeed and discover their potential. Our school motto, learning to live life to the full, has shaped my work throughout the past twelve years at Brockington, and it will continue to guide every decision I make.

A key priority for me is strengthening our sense of community. One of our core Christian values is koinonia, meaning fellowship and mutual support, and I believe wholeheartedly that the success of every child depends on a strong partnership between home and school. I am committed to open, honest communication and working closely with you so that, together, we can ensure every young person is known, nurtured and supported to flourish in all aspects of their life.

My commitment to you is that I will work every day to make the education and experience of every student at Brockington the very best it can be, and I will work with you as partners to achieve that goal.

Thank you for the warm support many of you have already shown. I look forward to continuing our work together.

Yours sincerely

Jon Barton
Principal
